

A CHECK-LIST OF AMPHIBIANS AND REPTILES
OF THE SAN JUAN ARCHIPELAGO

A M P H I B I A - Amphibians

CAUDATA - tailed amphibians

Ambystomatidae - mole salamanders

Ambystoma gracile Northwestern Salamander

Ambystoma macrodactylum Long toed Salamander

Salamandridae - newts

Taricha granulosa Rough-skinned Newt

Plethodontidae - lungless salamanders

Aneides ferreus..... Clouded Salamander

Ensatina edschscholtzi Ensatina

Plethodon vehiculum..... Western Red-backed Salamander

ANURA - frog and toads

Bufonidae - toads

† Bufo boreas Boreal Toad

Hylidae - treefrogs

Pseudacris regilla Pacific Chorus Frog

Ranidae - true frogs

† Rana aurora Red-legged Frog

Rana catesbeiana Bullfrog

R E P T I L I A - Reptiles

CHELONIA - turtles

Cheloniidae - sea turtles

† Chelonia mydas Green Sea Turtle

Dermochelyidae - leatherback sea turtles

† Dermochelys coriacea Leatherback Sea Turtle

Emydidae - terrapins

Chrysemys picta Painted Turtle

SQUAMATA - lizards and snakes

Sauria - lizards

Anguidae - anguid lizards

Elgaria coerulea Northern Alligator Lizard

Serpentes - snakes

Colubridae - colubrid snakes

† Contia tenuis Sharp-tailed Snake

Thamnophis sirtalis Common Garter Snake

Thamnophis ordinoides Northwestern Garter Snake

Thamnophis elegans Western Garter Snake

† Population is listed as endangered, threatened, rare, or of special concern by state and/or federal agencies [wdfw.wa.gov/wlm/diversity/soc/soc.htm].

NB: There are 18 amphibian and reptile species recorded for the archipelago of which 5 [28%] are currently listed populations.

References:

Leonard, W P, H A Brown, L L C Jones, K R McAllister, & R M Storm. 1993. Amphibians of Washington and Oregon. Seattle Audubon Society, Seattle, WA.

Matsuda, B M, D M Green, & P T Gregory. 2006. Amphibians and reptiles of British Columbia. Royal British Columbia Museum. Victoria, BC

Nussbaum, R A, E D Brodie Jr, & R M Storm. 1983. Amphibian and reptiles of the pacific northwest. University of Idaho Press, Moscow, ID